

MARCID

Meaning: Marcid: having a stale, decayed, or withered quality, often associated with an unpleasant odor or tired demeanor.

1. The marcid scent of decaying leaves filled the air as autumn set in.
2. Her voice took on a marcid tone, betraying her fatigue and disinterest.
3. The marcid remnants of the feast were scattered across the table, untouched and forlorn.
4. He couldn't shake the marcid feeling of regret that lingered after the argument.
5. Under the marcid light of the fading sun, the landscape appeared almost ghostly.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marcid>