

MARGARIC

Meaning: MARGARIC: relating to or characteristic of margarine or substances with similar properties, particularly in texture or composition.

1. The margoric qualities of the cheese made it a favorite among gourmet chefs.
2. Researchers discovered a margaric substance that could potentially revolutionize the food industry.
3. Her artwork was inspired by the margaric patterns found in nature, showcasing vibrant colors and shapes.
4. The margaric aroma of the freshly baked bread filled the room, enticing everyone nearby.
5. He was fascinated by the margaric properties of the oil, which seemed to enhance the flavors of the dish.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/margaric>