

MARGARINE

Meaning: Margarine is a butter substitute made from vegetable oils or animal fats, often used for spreading or cooking due to its lower fat content.

1. Margarine is often used as a substitute for butter in baking recipes.
2. Many people prefer margarine for spreading on toast because it has a lower fat content.
3. She added a dollop of margarine to the sautéed vegetables for extra flavor.
4. The recipe called for margarine, but she decided to use olive oil instead.
5. Margarine can be found in various flavors, including garlic and herbs for added taste.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/margarine>