

MARGINAL

Meaning: Marginal: relating to something that is of limited importance, significance, or influence.

1. The new policy had only marginal effects on the overall performance of the team.
2. In the debate, he presented a marginal viewpoint that few people had considered.
3. Despite the marginal increase in sales, the company struggled to meet its quarterly targets.
4. She made a marginal adjustment to her schedule to accommodate the unexpected meeting.
5. The findings highlighted marginal differences between the two species, warranting further investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marginal>