

MARIGENOUS

Meaning: Marigenous refers to environments or species that thrive in coastal or marine settings, particularly those adapted to saline conditions.

1. The marigenous landscape was filled with vibrant plants and flowers thriving in the salty air.
2. Researchers discovered that marigenous species had unique adaptations to survive in coastal environments.
3. Her garden was a testament to marigenous beauty, showcasing flora that flourished near the ocean.
4. The marigenous ecosystem plays a crucial role in supporting marine life and protecting shorelines.
5. They studied the marigenous habitats to understand their importance in climate resilience and biodiversity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marigenous>