

MARINATE

Meaning: To marinate means to soak food, especially meat, in a seasoned liquid to enhance its flavor and tenderness before cooking.

1. To enhance the flavor of the chicken, she decided to marinate it in a mixture of olive oil and herbs.
2. The recipe called for the steak to marinate for at least four hours to achieve maximum tenderness.
3. He prefers to marinate his vegetables in a citrus vinaigrette before grilling them.
4. When you marinate fish, it is essential to keep the time short to prevent it from becoming too mushy.
5. They marinated the tofu overnight to infuse it with a rich, savory taste.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marinate>