

MARPLOT

Meaning: MARPLOT: a person who causes disruption or interferes with the plans or activities of others, often through meddling or unwelcome actions.

1. The sudden arrival of the marplot at the gathering disrupted the carefully planned festivities.
2. Everyone knew that his meddling tendencies made him a marplot in the group's dynamic.
3. Despite her good intentions, she often played the role of a marplot, unintentionally causing chaos.
4. The committee struggled to move forward with their project, as one marplot continually raised objections.
5. In a tale of adventure, the marplot's antics led to unexpected challenges for the heroes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marplot>