

MARRIABLE

Meaning: MARRIABLE (adjective): suitable or desirable for marriage.

1. She always believed that love was about finding someone who was truly marriable.
2. After years of dating, he finally realized that she was the most marriable person he had ever met.
3. In her view, qualities like kindness and integrity made someone marriable, beyond mere physical attraction.
4. They often joked about what traits made someone marriable in their group of friends.
5. The relationship expert emphasized that communication skills were essential in identifying a marriable partner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marriable>