

MARRIAGEABILITY

Meaning: Marriageability refers to the qualities or attributes that make an individual considered suitable for marriage.

1. Her charm and intelligence greatly enhanced her marriageability in the eyes of potential suitors.
2. Societal expectations often place undue emphasis on marriageability, impacting personal choices.
3. In some cultures, marriageability is closely tied to educational attainment and professional success.
4. The discussion about marriageability can reveal much about the values and priorities of a community.
5. As she approached her thirties, she began to question how much she should prioritize her marriageability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marriageability>