

MARROWY

Meaning: Marrowy (adjective): having the rich, nourishing quality or texture characteristic of marrow, often used to describe food that is rich and satisfying.

1. The marrowy texture of the soup made it incredibly rich and satisfying.
2. He marveled at the marrowy bones left after the feast, perfect for a hearty broth.
3. As she savored the marrowy meat, the flavors burst in her mouth like a culinary symphony.
4. The marrowy essence of the dish reminded him of his grandmother's comforting home cooking.
5. In the dim light of the restaurant, the marrowy sauce glistened invitingly on the plate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marrowy>