

MARSHALER

Meaning: Marshaller: a person responsible for directing aircraft on the ground using hand signals and other visual cues.

1. The marshaller expertly directed the planes on the tarmac with precise hand signals.
2. In the bustling airport, the marshaller's bright vest made him easily recognizable to the pilots.
3. She aspired to become a marshaller after watching one guide a busy runway with such confidence.
4. The marshaller ensured that each flight departed on time by coordinating the movements of multiple aircraft.
5. During the training session, the marshaller emphasized the importance of clear communication in aviation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marshaler>