

MARSHALING

Meaning: Marshaling refers to the process of organizing and arranging resources or personnel systematically for a specific purpose or action.

1. Marshaling resources effectively can significantly enhance project outcomes.
2. The general was praised for marshalling his troops with precision and confidence.
3. In her presentation, she focused on marshalling the key arguments to support her thesis.
4. The event required careful marshalling of volunteers to ensure everything ran smoothly.
5. Marshaling public support is crucial for the success of this new initiative.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marshaling>