

MARSHALSHIP

Meaning: Marshalship refers to the position or office of a marshal, often involving leadership or command responsibilities, particularly in military or ceremonial contexts.

1. The marshalship of the parade was entrusted to an experienced officer.
2. Her dream was to attain the marshalship in the prestigious military academy.
3. With great pride, he accepted the marshalship for the annual festival of lights.
4. The responsibilities of the marshalship included coordinating all logistical details for the event.
5. After years of service, he was finally awarded the esteemed marshalship, a testament to his leadership.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marshalship>