

MARTYR

Meaning: A martyr is a person who sacrifices their life or endures suffering for a cause, particularly for their beliefs or principles, often inspiring others.

1. The young activist became a martyr for the cause of freedom after sacrificing her life during the protests.
2. In history, many leaders have been revered as martyrs, their deaths inspiring movements for justice.
3. He wore the title of martyr with pride, knowing his struggles would inspire future generations.
4. The film depicts how ordinary people can become martyrs in extraordinary circumstances.
5. Her dedication to her beliefs made her a martyr in the eyes of those who honored her sacrifice.
6. The activist became a martyr for her cause after she was unjustly imprisoned.
7. In history, many martyrs have been celebrated for their unwavering commitment to their beliefs.
8. He viewed his sacrifices as a form of martyrdom, willing to endure pain for the greater good.
9. The novel explores the theme of martyrdom, illustrating the struggles faced by those who stand up for their convictions.
10. She often felt like a martyr in her relationship, sacrificing her own happiness for the sake of others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/martyr>