

MARTYRLY

Meaning: Martyrly: in a manner that evokes or embodies the qualities of a martyr, often characterized by self-sacrifice or suffering for a cause, which can elicit both admiration and skepticism.

1. She spoke martyrly about her sacrifices for the community, drawing both admiration and skepticism.
2. His martyrly demeanor during the meeting made it difficult for others to voice their opinions.
3. The actress delivered her lines in a martyrly tone, evoking sympathy from the audience.
4. In her martyrly quest for justice, she often overlooked her own well-being.
5. He approached the situation with a martyrly attitude, believing that suffering was a noble path to take.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/martyrly>