

MARTYROLOGY

Meaning: Martyrology is a record or list of martyrs and their lives, often detailing their sufferings and the circumstances of their deaths.

1. The ancient text provided a detailed martyrology that honored the lives of early saints.
2. In her research, she uncovered a martyrology that chronicled the persecution of Christians throughout history.
3. The school's history curriculum included a martyrology section, highlighting the sacrifices made by various figures.
4. His fascination with martyrology led him to visit shrines dedicated to forgotten martyrs across Europe.
5. The priest recited passages from the martyrology during the service, reminding the congregation of their faith's trials.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/martyrology>