

MARVER

Meaning: Marver (noun): A smooth, flat surface used by glassblowers to shape and cool molten glass.

1. The artist used a marver to shape the molten glass into delicate forms.
2. During the glassblowing workshop, I learned how to manipulate materials on the marver.
3. The marver's smooth surface allowed the glass to cool evenly without distorting its shape.
4. He carefully rolled the hot glass on the marver to achieve the desired thickness.
5. Her skillful use of the marver transformed the raw glass into a stunning piece of art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marver>