

MASH

Meaning: Mash (verb): to crush or mix food, especially cooked vegetables or fruits, into a soft, smooth consistency.

1. I love to mash my potatoes until they are creamy and smooth.
2. The chef decided to mash the ingredients together to create a flavorful sauce.
3. After a long day, I like to unwind by watching my favorite TV show, M*A*S*H.
4. The children watched as the artist began to mash different colors of paint on the canvas.
5. She used a fork to mash the ripe avocados for her famous guacamole recipe.
6. The chef decided to mash the potatoes until they were creamy and smooth.
7. During the party, we served a delicious fruit mash that was a hit with everyone.
8. The old records were carefully mashing together the sounds of jazz and blues.
9. After a long hike, we enjoyed a hearty meal of mash and stew by the campfire.
10. She used a fork to mash the avocado, creating the perfect base for her guacamole.
11. The chef decided to mash the potatoes with butter and cream for a richer flavor.
12. During the festival, the children enjoyed a lively game of mash, where they squished soft fruits together.
13. She felt a wave of nostalgia as she watched the classic movie where the characters lived in a mash of comedy and drama.
14. After the party, all that was left were the remnants of a mash of half-eaten snacks and spilled drinks.
15. He used a fork to mash the avocado perfectly for his morning toast.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mash>