

MASSETER

Meaning: Masseter: a thick, powerful muscle located at the back of the jaw that is primarily responsible for the elevation of the mandible during chewing.

1. The masseter muscle is crucial for the process of chewing food.
2. In some individuals, the masseter can become hypertrophied due to excessive grinding of the teeth.
3. During the anatomy lecture, the professor emphasized the importance of the masseter in jaw function.
4. A strong masseter contributes to a prominent jawline, which is often associated with physical attractiveness.
5. When the masseter contracts, it allows for the powerful closure of the jaw during mastication.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/masseter>