

MASTFUL

Meaning: Mastful: possessing or filled with a large number of masts or sails, or figuratively, having an abundance of knowledge or information.

1. The ship was equipped with a mastful of sails, allowing it to catch the wind in every direction.
2. His mastful of knowledge about ancient civilizations never failed to impress his students.
3. The artist created a mastful of intricate designs that captivated the audience.
4. As they sailed across the sea, the mastful of flags fluttered proudly in the breeze.
5. Her mastful of ideas for the project ensured it would be a resounding success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mastful>