

MASTICATER

Meaning: Masticater (noun): A person or animal that chews food, particularly to soften it for easier swallowing or digestion.

1. The masticater chewed the tough jerky until it was tender enough to swallow.
2. In ancient times, the masticater played a crucial role in the preparation of food for communal meals.
3. The dentist explained that a strong masticater is essential for proper digestion of fibrous foods.
4. As a seasoned masticater, she could easily tackle the most challenging cuts of meat.
5. His reputation as a masticater made him the star of every barbecue at the neighborhood gatherings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/masticater>