

MASTICATORY

Meaning: Masticatory refers to the muscles or adaptations involved in the process of chewing.

1. The masticatory muscles play a crucial role in the process of chewing food.
2. In mammals, the development of masticatory adaptations can be observed in various species.
3. Dentists often emphasize the importance of proper masticatory function for overall oral health.
4. The masticatory process is essential for breaking down food into smaller, digestible pieces.
5. Researchers are exploring the relationship between masticatory habits and jaw alignment in children.
6. After the dental surgery, she experienced discomfort in her masticatory system.
7. The evolution of masticatory adaptations in herbivorous animals is fascinating.
8. Inadequate masticatory function can lead to various digestive issues over time.
9. The dentist recommended exercises to strengthen her masticatory muscles for better jaw health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/masticatory>