

MASTING

Meaning: Masting is the synchronized production and shedding of a large quantity of seeds by trees in a single season.

1. Masting is the process by which trees produce and shed a large number of seeds in a single season.
2. The phenomenon of masting can significantly impact local ecosystems and animal populations.
3. Researchers are studying how climate change affects the masting cycles of various tree species.
4. In some years, the masting of oak trees can lead to a sudden increase in the population of squirrels and other foragers.
5. Understanding the patterns of masting can help forest managers make informed decisions about wildlife conservation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/masting>