

MATCH-COAT

Meaning: A match-coat is a type of outer garment, typically worn in the 19th century, characterized by its distinctive silhouette and often designed to complement formal attire.

1. The match-coat was a popular style during the 19th century, known for its unique silhouette.
2. She wore a match-coat that complemented her dress perfectly, adding an extra layer of elegance.
3. In the chilly evening air, he wrapped his arms around himself, grateful for the warmth of his match-coat.
4. The vintage shop showcased a stunning collection of match-coats from various eras.
5. As the fashion show began, the models strutted down the runway, showcasing the latest designs in match-coats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/match-coat>