

MATCHLOCK

Meaning: Matchlock: a type of firearm that uses a mechanism to ignite gunpowder via a burning match, marking an early advancement in weapon technology.

1. The matchlock firearm was a significant advancement in weapon technology during the 16th century.
2. Historians believe that the matchlock was the first firearm to allow for a relatively safe method of ignition.
3. A collector of antique weapons proudly displayed his rare matchlock rifles from the 17th century.
4. The matchlock mechanism involved a slow-burning match cord that ignited the gunpowder when the trigger was pulled.
5. In many historical reenactments, participants often showcase the use of matchlock guns to illustrate early military strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/matchlock>