

MATCHMAKER

Meaning: A matchmaker is a person who facilitates romantic relationships by introducing potential partners to each other.

1. She acted as a matchmaker, introducing her single friends to each other in hopes of sparking romance.
2. The local community center hosted an event where a professional matchmaker shared tips on finding love.
3. In the story, the cunning matchmaker orchestrated a series of misunderstandings to bring the two protagonists together.
4. After years of playing the role of matchmaker, she finally decided to focus on her own love life.
5. He had a reputation as a matchmaker, known for his uncanny ability to connect people with similar interests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/matchmaker>