MATRASS

Meaning: Matrass: a large container or vessel, typically made of glass, used in laboratories for holding and mixing liquids.

1. The chemist carefully placed the chemical solution into the matrass for the experiment.
2. She needed a larger matrass to hold the volume of liquid required for her project.
3. After the reaction, he rinsed the matrass thoroughly to avoid any contamination.
4. The intricately designed matrass caught the attention of every visitor in the lab.
5. To ensure accurate measurements, the technician always used a calibrated matrass.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/matrass