MATRIARCHAL

Meaning: Matriarchal refers to a social system in which women, particularly mothers, hold primary power and authority in leadership and decision-making roles.

1. In many indigenous cultures, the social structure is often matriarchal, where women hold the primary authority.

2. The documentary explores the matriarchal societies in the Himalayas, highlighting the role of women in leadership and decision-making.

3. She admired the matriarchal traditions of her ancestors, which empowered women to lead their families and communities.

4. In a matriarchal family, the eldest woman typically makes the important decisions and guides the younger generations.

5. The novel portrays a future society that is matriarchal, challenging traditional gender roles and expectations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/matriarchal