

MATTED

Meaning: MATTED: (adjective) tangled or clumped together in a dense, knotted mass, often referring to fur or hair.

1. The dog's fur was so matted that it took hours to groom properly.
2. After weeks of neglect, the once sleek hair became thick and matted.
3. The artist used matted paper to give the painting a unique texture.
4. Her long hair became matted after the storm, making it difficult to comb.
5. He found a matted collection of old photographs hidden in the attic.
6. The dog's fur was so matted that it took hours to comb through the tangles.
7. After weeks of neglect, the garden became matted with weeds and overgrown grass.
8. She found a matted stack of old photographs hidden in the attic.
9. His hair was matted with sweat after the intense workout at the gym.
10. The carpet in the old house was matted down in places, evidence of years of foot traffic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/matted>