MATURANT

Meaning: Maturant (noun): A student who is nearing graduation, particularly from high school or secondary education.

1. The term 'maturant' is often used to describe a student who is nearing graduation.
2. In many cultures, a maturant celebration marks the transition from high school to university.
3. Teachers often prepare their maturant students for the challenges of higher education.
4. The maturant's final exams are crucial for determining their future academic paths.
5. As a maturant, she felt a mix of excitement and anxiety about what lay ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maturant