

MATURELY

Meaning: MATURELY: in a manner that demonstrates emotional or intellectual maturity and composure, especially in challenging situations.

1. She handled the difficult conversation maturely, ensuring that both sides felt heard.
2. In the face of criticism, he responded maturely rather than resorting to defensiveness.
3. They approached their financial challenges maturely, discussing their options openly and honestly.
4. By addressing the issue maturely, she was able to foster a healthier dialogue among her peers.
5. The team's maturely executed plan led to a successful outcome that everyone could celebrate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maturely>