

MATUTINARY

Meaning: Matutinary: relating to or occurring in the morning; morning-related.

1. The matutinary rituals of the monks set a serene tone for the day ahead.
2. She enjoyed the matutinary solitude of her morning walks before the world awoke.
3. In the quiet matutinary hours, the sun began to cast a golden hue over the landscape.
4. His matutinary cup of coffee became a cherished moment of peace before the chaos of the day.
5. They often discussed philosophical ideas during their matutinary gatherings, seeking wisdom in the early light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/matutinary>