

MAUDLIN

Meaning: Maudlin: excessively sentimental or emotional, often to the point of being insincere or unappealing.

1. Her maudlin speech at the farewell party left everyone feeling a bit uncomfortable.
2. The movie was criticized for its maudlin portrayal of love and loss, lacking any real depth.
3. After a few glasses of wine, he became maudlin, reminiscing about his high school days with tears in his eyes.
4. She found the song's maudlin lyrics to be overly sentimental and somewhat off-putting.
5. Despite its maudlin tone, the novel managed to capture the complexities of human emotion beautifully.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maudlin>