

MAUL

Meaning: To maul means to attack or handle someone or something roughly and violently, causing injury or damage.

1. The bear began to maul the unfortunate hunter who had stumbled too close to its den.
2. In the heat of the game, the player was afraid that a stray tackle might maul his chances of making the team.
3. The stray dog would occasionally maul the local garbage bins, scattering their contents everywhere.
4. During the wrestling match, his opponent tried to maul him with aggressive moves, but he managed to dodge each attack.
5. The ferocious lion was known to maul any intruders that dared to enter its territory.
6. The bear was known to maul any intruders that ventured too close to its territory.
7. In the heated game, the opposing player attempted to maul his rival to gain possession of the ball.
8. After the dog was provoked, it turned aggressive and began to maul the intruder.
9. The fierce lion was able to maul its prey within moments, showcasing its hunting prowess.
10. The child's toy was so poorly made that it looked like it had been mauled by a wild animal after just a few uses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maul>