

MAWKS

Meaning: Mawks (noun): openings or mouths, often used metaphorically to describe entrances or voids that evoke various emotions or sensations.

1. The artist's latest work was filled with maws, each one capturing a different emotion.
2. During the hike, we stumbled upon a peculiar cave with ominous maws that seemed to beckon us.
3. The maws of the ancient beasts in the museum exhibit left the children both fascinated and frightened.
4. In the story, the hero had to navigate through treacherous maws that threatened to engulf him.
5. The maws of the riverbank were eroded, creating dramatic cliffs that overlooked the rushing water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mawks>