

MAWWORM

Meaning: Mawworm: a creature, often resembling a worm, that feeds on decaying organic matter and is associated with gluttony in folklore.

1. The mawworm wriggled through the damp soil, searching for decaying leaves to consume.
2. In folklore, the mawworm is often depicted as a creature of gluttony, always seeking more to eat.
3. After the heavy rain, the garden was filled with mawworms, much to the delight of the birds.
4. The child was fascinated by the mawworm, watching it twist and turn in the sunlight.
5. Farmers often use mawworms in composting to help break down organic material quickly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mawworm>