

MAXIM

Meaning: A maxim is a concise statement or principle that expresses a general truth or rule of conduct.

1. A good leader always follows the maxim that integrity is key to building trust.
2. The company adopted a new maxim to encourage teamwork and collaboration among employees.
3. His personal maxim, "Never settle for less than you deserve," guided him through tough decisions.
4. In her philosophy class, she learned that a maxim is a succinct formulation of a principle or rule.
5. The team's success was attributed to their commitment to the maxim: "Together we achieve more."

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maxim>