

MEAK

Meaning: Meak: characterized by a gentle, submissive, or mild demeanor; lacking assertiveness or aggressiveness.

1. The meak demeanor of the new employee made it easy for her to blend into the team.
2. At the festival, the meak children watched in awe as the performers danced and sang.
3. Despite his meak appearance, he possessed a surprising amount of inner strength.
4. She spoke in a meak tone, hesitant to assert her opinions in the heated discussion.
5. The meak landscape, dotted with gentle hills and soft colors, was a sight to behold.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meak>