

MEAKING

Meaning: Meaking (verb) - the act of creating or preparing something, particularly in a careful or skillful manner.

1. Meaking a cake from scratch requires both time and patience.
2. The artist's meaking of the sculpture was a sight to behold.
3. In meaking difficult choices, she always trusted her instincts.
4. He found joy in meaking music that resonated with people's emotions.
5. Meaking connections with others can lead to unexpected opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meaking>