

MEAWL

Meaning: Meawl: (verb) to make a soft, mournful sound, typically associated with a cat, especially when expressing distress or longing.

1. The cat let out a soft meawl that echoed through the empty room.
2. As the kitten wandered away from its mother, it began to meawl in distress.
3. Hearing the meawl of the lost pup, the children rushed to find it.
4. A faint meawl could be heard from behind the closed door, hinting at a hidden surprise.
5. She couldn't help but chuckle at the adorable meawl of the tiny feline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meawl>