

MEDALLIC

Meaning: Medallic refers to something that is related to or resembling a medal, often characterized by intricate designs or patterns typically found on medals or coins.

1. The medallion hung elegantly around her neck, its medallic design capturing the light beautifully.
2. He admired the medallic pattern etched into the ancient coin, a testament to its historical significance.
3. Their medallic collection featured pieces from various cultures, each telling a unique story.
4. The artist's medallic sculptures were inspired by the grandeur of classical architecture.
5. At the award ceremony, the recipients were presented with medallic trophies that shimmered under the spotlight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/medallic>