

MEDDLE

Meaning: To interfere or involve oneself in others' matters or concerns without invitation or necessity.

1. It's best not to meddle in other people's affairs if you want to maintain good relationships.
2. She felt it was wrong to meddle in her friend's personal life, even though she had good intentions.
3. The children were warned not to meddle with the delicate equipment in the laboratory.
4. He couldn't help but meddle in the negotiations, believing he could improve the outcome.
5. Meddling in political matters often leads to unintended consequences for those involved.
6. It's not wise to meddle in other people's affairs without their permission.
7. She found it difficult to resist the urge to meddle in her friends' relationships.
8. The manager warned the team not to meddle with the established procedures.
9. Whenever he tried to help, it often seemed like he was just meddling.
10. They decided to meddle with the design, which ultimately compromised the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meddle>