

MEDDLER

Meaning: A meddler is a person who interferes in others' affairs or situations, often without invitation or necessity.

1. The meddler couldn't resist sticking his nose into every conversation at the party.
2. She was known as a meddler, always trying to fix others' problems without being asked.
3. His reputation as a meddler led many people to keep their distance from him.
4. Despite her good intentions, her meddler tendencies often caused more harm than good.
5. The community had grown weary of the meddler who tried to control every local event.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meddler>