

MEDICABLE

Meaning: MEDICABLE (adjective): capable of being treated or cured with medical intervention.

1. The doctor explained that the patient's condition was medicable with the right treatment.
2. After thorough examination, the specialists confirmed that his ailments were indeed medicable.
3. She felt a sense of relief knowing that her chronic pain was medicable with the new medication.
4. The research team focused on developing therapies for conditions previously thought to be non-medicable.
5. Public health initiatives aim to raise awareness about diseases that are medicable but often overlooked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/medicable>