

MEDUSIFORM

Meaning: Medusiform: resembling or having the shape and characteristics of a jellyfish, especially in terms of fluidity and tentacle-like appendages.

1. The medusiform jellyfish floated gracefully through the water, its tentacles trailing behind like delicate ribbons.
2. In art class, we were inspired to create sculptures that had a medusiform quality, mimicking the fluidity and form of sea creatures.
3. Scientists noted the medusiform structure of the new species, which resembled a jellyfish in both appearance and movement.
4. The designer's latest collection featured medusiform silhouettes that evoked the beauty and mystery of the ocean.
5. During the dive, we encountered a stunning medusiform organism that pulsed with vibrant colors in the dim light of the deep sea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/medusiform>