

MEED

Meaning: Meed: a reward or honor given for an achievement or merit, especially in recognition of bravery, excellence, or accomplishment.

1. The knight received a meed of honor for his bravery in battle.
2. In ancient times, a meed was often awarded to those who excelled in poetry or storytelling.
3. She believed that every act of kindness deserved a meed of gratitude.
4. The king's meed to the loyal subjects was a grand feast held in the castle.
5. His dedication to the project earned him a meed of respect from his peers.
6. The warrior received his meed of honor after the battle.
7. In ancient times, poets often sought a meed for their work through patronage.
8. Her tireless efforts in the community earned her a meed of gratitude from the townsfolk.
9. The king bestowed a meed upon the brave knight for his valor and loyalty.
10. He believed that every act of kindness deserved a meed in return.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meed>