

MEETINGHOUSE

Meaning: A meetinghouse is a building used for community gatherings, discussions, and events, often serving as a central place for social or religious activities.

1. The community gathered at the old meetinghouse to discuss the upcoming festival.
2. In the quiet town, the meetinghouse served as a hub for local events and gatherings.
3. She felt a sense of nostalgia every time she entered the meetinghouse, recalling her childhood memories.
4. The architect designed the meetinghouse with large windows to let in plenty of natural light.
5. During the winter months, the meetinghouse hosted weekly soup dinners for those in need.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/meetinghouse>