

MEGASCOPE

Meaning: A megascope is a powerful optical instrument used to magnify and analyze small details, such as cellular structures, with high clarity.

1. The scientist used a megascope to analyze the intricate details of the specimen.
2. With the help of a megascope, researchers were able to observe cellular structures in unprecedented clarity.
3. The megascope provided a magnified view that revealed features invisible to the naked eye.
4. During the presentation, the professor showcased stunning images captured through the megascope.
5. Many universities are investing in megascopes to enhance their biological research programs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/megascope>