

MEGRIM

Meaning: Megrim refers to a state of melancholy or a feeling of deep sadness and depression.

1. The sudden onset of megrim left her unable to concentrate on her work.
2. After a long week of stress, he experienced a megrim that made him retreat into silence.
3. The doctor diagnosed her with megrim, advising rest and hydration to alleviate the symptoms.
4. Even the faintest glimmer of light seemed to trigger his megrim, forcing him to seek refuge in darkness.
5. She often described her megrim as a thunderstorm brewing in her head, unpredictable and intense.
6. The sudden onset of megrim left her feeling disoriented and vulnerable.
7. After a long day at work, he often experienced megrim that made it hard to concentrate.
8. She attributed her megrim to the stress of the upcoming exams.
9. The doctor explained that megrim could be triggered by various factors, including lack of sleep.
10. In literature, megrim is sometimes portrayed as a metaphor for emotional turmoil.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/megrim>