

MELAMINE

Meaning: Melamine is a synthetic compound used in the manufacture of plastics and resins, often associated with concerns over food safety due to its potential contamination in food products.

1. Melamine is often used in the production of durable plastic tableware.
2. In recent years, concerns have arisen over melamine contamination in food products.
3. The chemical properties of melamine make it an ideal component in resin manufacturing.
4. Several countries have banned the use of melamine in children's products due to health risks.
5. Researchers are studying the potential impacts of melamine on human health and the environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/melamine>